Church and Sunday School at 10:30 am Sunday

Whats Up For September

Sept. 20 & 27th , Oct.11&18th at 6:30 pm, Youth Group meets to begin plans for their HAUNTED HOUSE.

They will build skeletons and all sorts of scary things. If this is something you would like to join us for then do come.

Sept.22/13 Rev. Mark will go out with the Sunday School folks.

Sept. 24th at 6:30 pm is the Annual U.C.W. Dessert Party.

Note the change in time from our usual. Our guest speaker will be Judy Wasylycia-Leis.

She will speak on her trip to Pakistan and her work with the women. There will be photos on the overhead as well.

The evening is in the Sanctuary.

After the presentation we will indulge in delicious desserts and refreshments.

There is no cost for this event so come out and bring your spouse or a friend.

Sept.29th is Blessing of the Animals Sunday so bring your pet for blessing.

A MAZE IN CORN SEPT. 29th

The Youth Group is planning it's second annual trip to the corn maze. This year however, there will be a BBQ pit and a place for open fires along with marshmallows.

Come along and join us. Bring your family and friends along with whatever food you will be cooking and eating.

There are seats but bring a lawn chair if you like. It will be a blast.

We will leave the church at 12:30 sharp or you can meet us there. If you can help or need transportation then let Susan Milimac (Youth Group Leader) know at 204-694-9064 or Rev. Mark at 204-979-0510 as soon as you can. We will get a discount on gate cost if we have 20 or more.

The gate cost is $10.00 for 13 years and up, $8.00 for ages 4 to 12 and under 4 free.

Wednesday Morning Coffee

Wednesday morning coffee get together has started again.

Come out for a coffee and a chat. It's fun and free with lots of conversation and fellowship. You might even find a cookie or two. It is held in the Sanctuary and very casual. Give it a try.

Sunday School

Sunday School is up and running and we are all excited to get the classes going. If you haven't registered yet, then please do so. Our kids are the future of the church.

The young folks need to feel welcomed.

The teachers are ready to help them learn. There will be fun times as well as learning times.

The practice for the pageant will begin much earlier in the year to give the kids more time to learn their parts.

It's so great to sit in a pew and just watch how far they have come. Some of the folks who are teaching were once part of the Sunday School.

We really appreciate the dedication from the teachers. It's a big job but so rewarding to see the faces of the children light up when they succeed.

Sunday School is at 10:30.

CPR Classes

Have you ever watched someone perform CPR and wish you could do the same?

Well, here's your chance to learn. Susan Milimac is a nurse and is getting together a group who would like to take part in this type of training. There will cost yet to be determined. It depends on the number of folks registering. It will be done by a certified CPR instructor. We would like to try for day and evening classes. It's is a one time commitment. Once a date and time is established we will let everyone know.

There can never be too many people with this skill. If you would like to be one of these lifesavers then let Susan Milimac know ASAP. Her number is: 204-694-9460.

The great pumpkin:

October 4th the Youth Group will sponsor a Pumpkin Patch Search. There will be the opportunity to choose your pumpkin and maybe a few squashes. Some will be purchased to decorate the outdoors of the church for Thanksgiving.

Saturday Oct.5th 7 pm at Kildonan United Church 187 Kilbride Avenue in the Sanctuary we will have our third North-end Artist Collective and KUC House Concert.

This is our third such concert and this time will feature aboriginal culture and history. It will be an extremely interesting time. Entertainment will include Al Liicilous singer/drummer, Wab Kineu -performer/ speaker/drummer, Slick, Little J, and Cieanna Harris-Metis Jiggers, Dylan Mowatt-Slam Poet, Michael champagne (Aboriginal Youth Opportunities) Organizer/ Speaker, Visual Arts Display by Neechi Niche (Neechi Commons Gallery)

Admission is by donation at the door. Bring a finger food snack to share. For more information:

or Rev. Mark Satterly 204-979-0510 kucmin@mts.net

October 6th is World Wide Communion.

Communion will be served as we celebrate the sacrament with the Christians of the world.

Thanksgiving Sunday

The Worship and Education Committee has decided on something we haven't had in many years. We usually decorate the church for Thanksgiving with different vegetables, fruits, gourds etc. This year we would like your help. Think of something you are very thankful for. It can be food, your home, your family, friends, anything. If it's a person you might like to bring a picture or the person.

We would like you to start bringing your items next Sunday so the decorating can be gradual. If you have a favorite food, then bring that. We will donate food items as we have done in the past.

It doesn't matter what it is as long as it is something you are thankful for. We had one year an electric fry pan. It sounds funny but it was something that was very important to the person.

There are no limits. Once again the Decorating Group will work on making the Sanctuary a place to be thankful for. Dave Melanson has already started so let's continue. He has proven to have some very good ideas.

October 19th is our Fall Roast Pork Dinner. Tickets are available at $15.00 for adults, children 6-12 $7.00 and under 6 free.

It's a great meal with roast pork, mashed potatoes, gravy, vegetables, apple sauce, cole slaw, rolls and butter, dessert and beverages. You can't beat the price anywhere.

Tickets go fast so get yours now. Barb Parsons has them.

Stewardship Committee Activities

The Stewardship Committee held a "Not Delivering Phone Books" fund raiser and raised nearly $800.00.

They will be selling Black Pearl Coffee and Bothwell cheese from Oct.3 until Nov.4. This is a fund raiser also.

They have all kinds of things scheduled for the new year so keep watching the announcements and the newsletters for more information.

Halloween Party October 25th, 2013

The Youth Group will have a great pumpkin Halloween Party Friday Oct.25 from 6-8 pm. Come one, come all for a fun filled evening of spookiness and food and all sorts of things.

You won't know what to expect so come out and join the fun.

We will have another newsletter out in November to let you know what's happening for Advent, Christmas and New Years.

There will be a childrens pageant and White Gift Dec.8
